The Revd Harold Stephens The Rectory 17a Edward Road Dorchester Dorset DT1 2HL Telephone: 01305 268434 E-mail Address: harold.stephens627@btinternet.com Dorchester Deanery	Harold Stephens Currently Team Rector of Dorchester and with special responsibility for St Mary's Dorchester (modern Catholic tradition). Until 2007, Rector of the Lavingtons, Cheverells and Easterton near Devizes. For 17 years an NSM serving in Warminster and as Deputy Head in the Upper School of Salisbury. Was a secondary school teacher for 28 years, always in comprehensive schools. Have been involved with teaching and tutoring the OLM course, Bishops Certificate and as lead Tutor in the current Learning for Discipleship programme. Training incumbent for several clergy colleagues, 2 at present. Chair of the Diocesan Board of Education (until October 2010) and SIAS inspector in this diocese and in Bath and Wells. Secretary to the Diocesan Evreux Link. Married with 2 adult children. Much experience in rural and town ministry, as NSM as well as stipendiary priest.

The Revd Benny Hazlehurst Carriers Cottage Cheselbourne Dorchester Dorset DT2 7NJ Telephone: 01258 839294 E-mail Address: benny@somail.it Dorchester Deanery	Benny Hazlehurst - I have been the vicar of 4 rural churches just outside Dorchester for the last 5 years, after 14 years ministry on the housing estates of South London. I would describe myself as a progressive evangelical, but have experience of working in all Anglican traditions (which I value greatly). In Southwark Diocese, I was a course tutor on the OLM training scheme for Mission, and my most recent training curate, Rev Sarah Godfrey appears to have survived the experience intact to become a much valued colleague. I am a member of the diocesan Well Being Group and have also served on General Synod (2000-2005).

After teaching Modern Languages, and a curacy in Westbury, she was Assistant DDO in Bath &amp; Wells, Dean of Women's Ministry for six years, Chaplain to the diocesan Mothers Union, and Vicar of three parishes on the Somerset Levels for nearly twelve years. She is single, caring part-time for an elderly mother. From ministry in Glastonbury, she has an interest in Celtic spirituality as a means of mission to the New Age movement, and in the contribution of women to faith communities and public life. She is a card-carrying Francophile, loves swimming, philosophy and crime fiction, and various needlecrafts.

Jacquie Birdseye Currently Rector of the United Benefice of Moreton, Woodsford, Tingleton and Crossways (from 2005). I came to ministry from a teaching and music background from Chichester Diocese, where I was a Reader, trained for Ministry at Salisbury and Wells and have served in Guildford, St Albans and Salisbury dioceses over 22 years. During that time I have received coaching and mentoring on a formal level and given both formal and informal mentoring to others, especially with regard to vocations, the newly ordained and those going through a time of transition. I have a ministry of spiritual direction. I am currently a member of the Diocesan Advisory Committee, Initial Ministerial Education Tutor (2006-10), Chair of the Sherborne Archdeaconry Prayer and Spirituality Group and a Tutor on the newly formed Sharing the Journey course for spiritual direction in the diocese. I am a member and enthusiastic supporter of the Work Based Learning Group scheme.

Jenny Bagnall – I have been an LLM in the Watercombe Benefice for 12 years and before that for 13 years in the Willesden area of London where I was also the Lay Chairman's Coordinator at Northwick Park Hospital in Harrow and ran a large Bereavement Visiting Scheme (1800 referrals per annum). This involved training which I have continued to do in Dorset for CRUSE and LPA's. I have been variously involved in pastoral support groups and am a Spiritual Director. Now a grandmother of 4, I once read and taught history, trained as a violinist and did a year's course at the Institute of Group Analysis – invaluable for trying to make sense of Church Life! I enjoy people.

Jim Richardson – Retired as Team Rector of the Bournemouth Town Centre Parish in 2009 after 13 years and now serve in an honorary capacity as Canon Pastor at Sherborne Abbey. Ordained in 1969 (Lichfield) and have enjoyed a varied ministry, mainly in city/town centre posts. I was Vicar of Leeds (Leeds Parish Church) for five years and a member of the Bishops Staff Meeting. I also chaired a racial harassment commission in the city and was on the governing body of several schools. From Leeds I was appointed British Director of the Council for Christians and Jews (CCJ) and have an interest in interfaith matters. Although I am a team leader for a while in a rural benefice (6 parishes, 9 churches) my focus is really civic and urban ministry. I chaired the Bournemouth Standards Board. I have a broken marriage and understand something this kind of stress may have caused you, I am also completing an MPhil on Tudor Churchwardens Accounts – which is a real turn off, I know. I appreciate however the difficulty of trying to live a balanced life and ministry. I am a friendly informal person and will help if I can.
