Welcome to this year’s Continuing Ministerial Development brochure containing CMD provision for Ordained Ministers, Lay Ministers, Lay Pastoral Assistants and Lay Worship Leaders as well as opportunities for others. Follow the colour coding to find the parts that are relevant to you. Please do encourage others in your ministry teams and congregations to participate fully and to set aside time for the ongoing learning and development that is so important for our discipleship and ministry.

All the events in the Diocesan Programme are flagged OM, LM, LPA, LWL, ALL to show whether they are primarily intended for Ordained Ministers, Lay Ministers, Lay Pastoral Assistants, Lay Worship Leaders or are open to everybody. In some cases the event is only suitable for certain people or else there are funding reasons why we need to put a cap on numbers but in some cases the letters are more for guidance and it would be possible for others to be included. So if you see an event that you would like to come to which does not have your letters against it feel free to contact us and enquire.

Retired clergy are welcome to participate in CMD. We try to keep an up to date list of those who have told us that they want to take part and welcome your help in regularly drawing the CMD provision to the attention of retired clergy. Any events that are flagged OM are open to retired clergy plus any other provision for Ordained Ministers that is relevant, with the exception of the Clergy Day/ Clergy Conference.

Our Diocesan CMD expectation
If you are a licensed or commissioned Diocesan minister then you are expected to resource yourself for your ministry by regularly undertaking appropriate ongoing learning and development. This is one of the ways in which we exercise good stewardship of the gifts that God has given us. All the events in the Diocesan Programme are free of charge and within reason you can come to as many as you want.

The Continuing Ministerial Development Statement of Expectations at the front of the brochure sets out the legal expectation for clergy participation in CMD under Common Tenure. The Bishop expects all ordained ministers to participate in Ministry Review and to attend Chapter meetings regularly. The Clergy Day and any Archdeaconry Day or equivalent are expectations for ordained ministers and in addition please sign up for at least two events from the Diocesan Programme. As a guideline, ordained ministers should plan to devote no less than five days a year to some form of appropriate ongoing professional development.

Although there is no legal requirement for other ministers to participate in CMD you may find the Continuing Ministerial Development Statement of Expectations a helpful guide to why CMD is important and why we should all make it a priority. Lay Ministers who are licensed or have permission to officiate are expected to attend the LLM Annual Meeting and Admissions Service and any Archdeaconry Day or equivalent and in addition please sign up for at least one event from the Diocesan programme. Lay Pastoral Assistants and Lay Worship Leaders are also expected to participate in events that are appropriate for the development of your ministry.

Booking
Booking CMD events is done via the online booking system. Most people are now using this quickly and easily. A Step by Step Guide to Online Booking is available on the Diocesan website at www.salisbury.anglican.org/learning. If you have any questions or difficulties relating to the online booking system don’t hesitate to contact our Team Administrator Cathryn Wright cathryn.wright@salisbury.anglican.org or 01722 411944.
Cancellations
If you find that you are unable to attend an event for which you have booked you should cancel your booking online as soon as possible. If you are cancelling at less than 5 working days’ notice you should also email cathryn.wright@salisbury.anglican.org or call her on 01722 411944. You should contact Cathryn in addition to, not instead of, cancelling online. This is particularly important at events with limited numbers as we may be able to offer your place to another person. It also helps us keep down the costs of meals, resource packs etc. If costs have been incurred on your behalf and you have not notified us that you are unable to come within a reasonable timeframe we will request a contribution from you. People have been very good about this but of course we would prefer not to do it at all so please help us by putting events straight in your diary when you book them and making every effort to keep the time free. If an event with limited numbers is over subscribed places will be allocated on a ‘first come’ basis but we will do our best to run the event again on another occasion.

Funding
All events in the Diocesan Programme are offered free of charge although a donation may be requested where a meal is provided. For those events for which there is a residential option you will be asked to cover the costs of residence yourself unless otherwise stated.

Attendance by Diocesan invitation at a range of external courses and consultations is funded on behalf of those for whom they are relevant. Funding is also available on a discretionary basis to individuals who are planning their own learning.

The standard grant for ordained ministers in 2019 is £270 (1% of stipend) and this may be applied for by stipendiary or non stipendiary ordained ministers for any relevant learning activity. Exceptional requests for larger amounts may be considered.

Ordained ministers in the first four years of ministry have a separate learning programme but are also invited to all shared events and are very welcome to any of the events in the Diocesan Programme. You are not normally eligible for individual grants as the money allocated to you has already been spent on the IME Part 2 programme. However, ordained ministers completing degrees or working for higher degrees in their first four years will be assisted with funding wherever possible. The standard grant for 2019 will be applicable for this purpose and this may be claimed by stipendiary or non stipendiary ministers.

There is no per capita grant for Lay Ministers, Lay Pastoral Assistants and Lay Worship Leaders but parishes are encouraged to contribute towards the costs of CMD for their ministers. Occasionally it may be possible for us to make a contribution from the CMD pot for a learning activity that is particularly relevant or necessary.

Funding is not available for retreats but parishes are requested to treat this as an expense of office. There is no automatic funding to Teams or Deaneries for corporate events but all or part of a number of individual grants can be released for this purpose to enable a group of people to plan something together.

If you wish to apply for a grant please put in your claim in advance and not retrospectively by contacting us with outline details of what you propose to do and the cost. Money can usually be advanced where needed. We also hold information about other possible sources of funding.
RURAL MINISTRY AND MISSION DAY: STRENGTHENING COLLABORATION
Led by: Bishop Karen and guest speakers
When: Saturday 14 September
Where: Kingston Maurward College

Want to be inspired – with a clear vision of what successful rural collaboration can achieve? This day is for you. As well as a panel of inspiring guest speakers there will be a range of interactive workshops and a host of ‘taster sessions’ on various #RuralHope courses and initiatives such as THRIVE. The day is open to mixed teams of lay and ordained leaders from rural benefices and invitations will be sent out to all rural incumbents in the New Year.
RURAL CMD DAYS

MULTI PARISH HOLY WEEK

Led by: Tom Clammer
When: Tuesday 5 February
Where: Dinton Village Hall

Holy Week is the most solemn and profound period of the Christian year. The liturgical riches are plentiful but how best to use them when ministering and worshipping in rural multi parish benefices? How can we deliver Holy Week imaginatively when our buildings are many and our resources are perhaps stretched thin? An opportunity to think theologically and creatively about how we can use available resources and devise new ones.

Tom Clammer has been a rural parish priest, and more recently Canon Precentor of Salisbury Cathedral. He is now a freelance theologian, educator and spiritual accompanier.

THROUGH THE SEASONS WITH A RURAL LENS

Led by: Richard Hancock

In the Diocese of Salisbury we are blessed to live in a very beautiful part of England with superb views all around us. Each season of the year has its particular attractions. This is an opportunity for those with cameras to spend a day together indulging our hobby and honing our skills. As well as having an enjoyable time we also hope to capture some great images that can be used (with copyright acknowledgement of course!) to promote #RuralHope.

Saturday 9 March 10 am – 4 pm
Photographing Tyneham Village followed by a pub lunch at Lulworth Cove then photographing the Cove in the afternoon.

Thursday 20 June 10 am – 4 pm
Photographing Weymouth and Portland Bill, with fish and chips on the beach. Photographing a traditional seaside town and its people then onto the rugged landscape of Portland Bill.

Tuesday 10 September 10 am – 4 pm
Photographing Corfe Castle and the Swanage Railway. Capture the beauty of the castle ruins and then all the glories of the steam age.

All these days are open to beginners or keen enthusiasts. Equipment required – camera!

Richard is Vicar of Sixpenny Handley and Dorset Rural Field Officer. He is also a keen photographer. Go here for a link to his website www.richardhancocklrps.co.uk

INSPIRING MUSIC IN WORSHIP: ENGAGING WITH THE RURAL CHURCH
Led by Helen Bent
When: Tuesday 19 November
Where: Sarum College

Drawing on RSCM’s Inspiring Music in Worship series, this day aims to encourage and equip those who lead worship in rural settings. Using a workshop approach, the day will explore the many possibilities for nurturing the musical and liturgical life of small congregations with limited resources.

Helen Bent is RSCM’s Head of Ministerial Training in partnership with Praxis, and the author of the course Inspiring Music in Worship.
RURAL WORKSHOPS – a series of short workshops offering practical updates on different aspects of rural life

LONELINESS IN THE COUNTRYSIDE
Led by: Richard Kirlew
When: Wednesday 20 March 2 – 4 pm
Where: Jubilee Hall, Yetminster

Make no mistake, loneliness and isolation are killers! It is more prevalent in rural areas and is largely exacerbated by the society we live in today. In this session, we aim to explore the reasons for this and how we, as rural churches, can help to stop it.

Before coming to this Diocese in 2015, Richard was the Rural Officer for Swansea and Brecon Diocese in mid-Wales; National Lead on Rural Affairs for the Church in Wales and Rector of seven tiny parishes in the Radnor hills. He is now a House for Duty Team Vicar in The Three Valleys Team, Rural Officer for Dorset and Chaplain at Salisbury Livestock Market.

CRIME IN THE COUNTRYSIDE
Led by: Bill Cave
When: Thursday 6 June 10 – 12 noon
Where: Friends’ Meeting House, Devizes

England’s green and pleasant land? Or is the reality more complex? A workshop to examine the issue of rural crime in all its aspects, including criminal behaviour, targeting of churches, and the impact on victims. How should we as rural churches respond, both in terms of keeping ourselves safe and supporting other victims? To find out more about rural crime go here: www.wiltshire.police.uk/Ruralcommunities

Bill Cave is Senior Chaplain to Wiltshire Police.
WILDLIFE IN THE COUNTRYSIDE
Led by: Jean Coates
When: Thursday 12 September 10 – 12 am
Where: Brockbank Centre, Langford Lakes

Intensive farming, badger culling, fox hunting … these and other hot topics can sometimes divide opinion in rural communities. What happens when the interests of wildlife and the interests of people living and working in the countryside are in tension and how are we as ministers and church members engaging with these issues?

Jean Coates was formerly the Rural Officer for Dorset and a parish priest in South Dorset for 14 years.

POVERTY IN THE COUNTRYSIDE
Led by: David Baldwin and Jo Neary

Poverty, homelessness, drug use, food banks … these may sound like urban problems but the reality is that they increasingly to be found in rural contexts too. The Pilsdon Community in Lyme Bay Deanery offers a ministry of friendship, hospitality and acceptance to those who are seeking to rebuild their lives and many local churches are also involved. Find out what is being done – and what more can be done.

Since 1972 Germinate: The Arthur Rank Centre, an ecumenical Christian charity, has served both the spiritual and practical needs of the rural community through a programme of community and social projects, resourcing and training. We provide hundreds of resources for rural churches including a comprehensive range of worship resources and rural stories, ideas and inspiration though our magazine, Country Way.

Our highly popular Rural Ministry Course has been running for over 30 years. Newer projects include Germinate Enterprise, a rural business start-up programme, Germinate Groups, learning communities for multi-church groups, and Germinate Leadership, a training programme developing the creative and entrepreneurial skills of rural church leaders. We also run a biennial Germinate Conference, a major national day conference for all those involved in rural mission and ministry. We have also developed Rural Mission Sunday, an annual celebration of the life and work of rural churches, an opportunity to remember all the things they do well, and challenge themselves to do one new thing.

We are the home of the National Rural Officers for the Church of England, Methodist and United Reformed Church; and also the hub for the church network of Rural Officers and Agricultural Chaplains. Our focus is to support and strengthen the UK’s 15,000 rural churches, so they can respond positively to change and impact the communities they serve.

Rural Ministry Course
The Rural Ministry Course is offered twice a year for those who are new to rural ministry. The three day residential programme employs a variety of approaches including practical sessions, group work and workshops led by practitioners. It is designed for lay and ordained ministers across the denominations who may be entering a rural appointment for the first time, or who may already be in rural ministry but feel the need for a ‘refresher’. It attracts those who are keen to examine the challenges and opportunities that this ministry offers. Contact Clare Phillips, Rural Ministry Development Officer, on Clare.Phillips@salisbury.anglican.org for more information.

Germinate Leadership Programme
For those interested in the Germinate Leadership Programme go here: http://germinate.net/training/germinate-leadership. #RuralHope can fully fund two places a year on the programme and we are keen to recruit two new participants for an Autumn 2019 start. SALT, LIGHT AND FEET OF CLAY: CELEBRATING THE MINISTRY OF LAY PEOPLE
With George Dunn CEO, Tenant Farmers Association
Wednesday 15 May, 10 am – 2 pm
John Kirkham Hall, King’s Park Conference and Sports Centre, Kings Park Road, Northampton, NN3 6LL
£15 until 31 March then £20 (including refreshments and lunch)

Often when we think about church and leadership we think immediately of clergy of various descriptions. But what about head teachers, office managers, newspaper editors, financial controllers, magistrates, farm managers, school governors, youth football coaches, scout leaders and chief executives? In rural, suburban and urban communities across the UK, congregations are peppered with individuals such as these with spheres of influence that may never be touched by traditional forms of leadership within our churches. Exercising Christian leadership in a secular context requires wisdom, sensitivity and strength. How can our rural churches find ways to nurture, support, protect and grow the leaders in our communities? And what might those leaders have to offer to our churches? This event is for anyone who is interested in the nature and exercise of leadership in the rural church. Whether you’re a clergy person, lay leader, involved in a rural church or just curious, we’d love to see you! (And since it’s you the Diocese of Salisbury will cover the cost, just contact Clare Phillips, Rural Ministry Development Officer, on Clare.Phillips@salisbury.anglican.org)

THRIVE – MULTI PARISH BENEFICE LEARNING COMMUNITIES

If you are one of the increasing number of churches in a multi-parish benefice, THRIVE may be just what you are looking for. THRIVE Communities are for lay leaders, influential lay members and clergy in multi-parish benefices. Through THRIVE, many benefices have discovered new hope, vision and creativity in mission.

A THRIVE Community is a committed gathering of people working together and learning ways to co-operate more effectively with God’s mission in the world. It combines ways to explore the experiences and wisdom of everyone in the community with fresh insights from facilitators and guest speakers.

THRIVE Groups consist of 6-8 people from each of several multi parish benefices who are willing to commit to a two year programme of development and growth. Each THRIVE Group must include the vicar or rector plus leaders – lay or ordained – with significant influence in the life of the benefice.

Participants commit to four non-residential THRIVE Community gatherings of two full day each (usually a Friday and a Saturday) over the course of two years, plus one final day for review and commissioning. Two facilitators lead the event. In the months between THRIVE Community gatherings, each THRIVE Group will work with PCCs and others in the benefice to decide the future shape of ministry and mission across the churches. At the end of each gathering, each THRIVE Group puts together an action plan for the next six months to facilitate change. A benefice is allocated a ‘supporter’ who will stay in touch between gatherings and bring outside perspective and encouragement on the plans.

THRIVE Communities are good fun, hard work and extremely stimulating. With a mixture of input, lots of discussion, exercises, prayer and sharing wisdom, each gathering looks at a different topic:

- Journey: where have we come from and what is God’s call for us at this time?
- Leadership: how can we best support current leaders and grow new ones?
- Discipleship: how can we deepen our journey of faith and share faith with others?
- Mission: how can we show God’s love in a hurting world in our actions and words?
- Vision: what is God commissioning us to do in the years to come?

A THRIVE Community will be forming in Dorset, beginning in March, with another one planned in Wilts for later in the year and the possibility of others after that. All the costs including the travel costs of participants will be covered by the #RuralHope budget. We anticipate a lot of interest – to express yours please contact Clare Phillips, Rural Ministry Development Officer on Clare.Phillips@salisbury.anglican.org. Our four Rural Field Officers are happy to come and speak to benefices that are considering THRIVE.
New Year is a time for good resolutions but how easy will they be to keep? The secret is to keep it realistic and achievable. Just 15 minutes of simple stretching exercises first thing in the morning or as a de-stresser during the day can make all the difference to physical fitness and a sense of wellbeing.

In this user friendly exercise class Theresa will teach four easy to remember short routines that can be combined into longer sequences keeping the major muscle groups toned and supple. All ability levels can benefit, normal range of movement is all that’s needed and the exercises can be tailored to individuals’ requirements.

Please bring with you an exercise mat or towel to lie on and a notebook and pen to jot down any instructions or if preferred a mobile phone to photograph the moves. A simple and healthy lunch will be provided after the session.

Theresa is an experienced Stott Pilates teacher and fitness instructor. Some of us will remember her from last year’s Clergy Conference.
WHY MEN DON’T GO TO CHURCH

Led by: Matt Levinsohn
When: Thursday 7 February 10 am – 1 pm
Where: St Francis Church, Salisbury

Have you ever asked this question yourself? Have you ever noticed or wondered why, statistically, there are so few men in Church communities? It’s a question that inspired Matt Levinsohn to write a dissertation addressing this perennial conundrum.

In this very practical session, Matt will share with us his research into how we can help men come to and grow in faith. We will think about the factors that keep men from our doors and from Jesus and will work together to come up with practical things we can do to help our churches reach men. An optional follow up session will be planned for 4 months after the initial training session so we can evaluate together what we have tried and the impact it has had in our churches.

Matt is curate of Salisbury St Francis and St Lawrence Stratford sub Castle.

MACBETH: A LEADERSHIP PARABLE

Wellbeing

When: Thursday 28 February 7.30 pm
Where: Mayflower Theatre, Southampton

The ruined aftermath of a bloody civil war. Ruthlessly fighting to survive, the Macbeths are thrust towards the crown by forces of elemental darkness. How does this most intense of Shakespeare’s tragedies shape our thinking about the responsibilities, privileges and perils of leadership?

Directed by National Theatre Artistic Director Rufus Norris (Cabaret, London Road) and designed by Rae Smith (War Horse, This House) this new production propels Shakespeare’s classic title into a post-apocalyptic world of anarchy and uncertainty. Scottish actor Michael Nardone (BBC One’s The Night Manager and Rellik, HBO’s Rome) will play the title role, with Kirsty Besterman (Genesis Inc. at Hampstead Theatre, They Drink It in The Congo at the Almeida Theatre, and BBC One's Father Brown) joining the cast as Lady Macbeth.

We will make up a party to eat together before the performance, otherwise meet up at the theatre at 7 pm. If you wish to bring family members or other guests we can include them in the booking at your expense. To facilitate this please sign up as usual via the online booking system by Friday 18 January but also email cathryn.wright@salisbury.anglican.org if you wish to bring others.

BREKFAST@9 HUB CONFERENCE

Led by: Chris Tebbutt, Sharon Cooksley and Laurence Singlehurst
When: Monday 4 March
Where: Canford Magna Church Centre

People are hungry. In more ways than one. The Breakfast Church Hub was set up a couple of years ago and since then the number of Breakfast Cafe Churches has increased across the diocese. Combining tasty breakfast, fresh coffee, a delving into the Bible and faith, Breakfast Church has proved to be a great, and increasingly popular, way of drawing people together.

Whether you are harbouring thoughts of setting up this Fresh Expression of Church, have recently set one up, have experience to share, or think you could adapt a similar format in your context, we would love to see you for this day. We are excited to have Laurence Singlehurst joining as guest speaker on the day. Laurence is Director of Cell UK and is also on the board and leadership team of HOPE and Westminster Theological College. He has written several books including the bestseller Sowing Reaping Keeping, along with Loving the Lost, Beyond the Clouds and The Gospel Message Today. He will offer wisdom from the national scene, whilst Chris Tebbutt and Sharon Cooksley, who have pioneered Breakfast@9 in Canford, will share experiences and new developments. Bring yourself, some lunch and an open mind.
SO LONG, FAREWELL, AUF WIEDERSEHEN, ADIEU
Led by: Nick Papadopulos, Ed Probert and Robert Titley
When: Thursday 7 March
Where: The Stephenson Hall, Leaden Hall, Cathedral Close

The Church of England is accustomed to take a lead at times of joy and sorrow for our nation but how should we respond to Brexit? At the time of putting this brochure together we still have no clear idea what Brexit will mean in practice or even if it will happen at all. What we can be sure of is that feelings will be mixed and emotions will run high. What role will there be for church leaders and church communities in setting a positive tone and perhaps providing space for reflection and response through liturgy and prayer?

Drawing on the Cathedral’s recent experience of the Salisbury nerve agent attack, the day will offer an opportunity to think widely about the civic role of the Church of England at times of change, to consider the particular challenges and opportunities presented by Brexit, and to share resources and ideas for liturgical and other responses.

Nick Papadopulos is Dean, Ed Probert is Canon Chancellor and Robert Titley is Canon Treasurer of Salisbury Cathedral.

WORRY BEADS
Led by: Andrew Dotchin
When: Friday 8 March
Where: Harnham Parish Church and Hall

Not just for those from a catholic tradition – many traditions make use of prayer beads in different ways so come along and find out more. Andrew will supply tools and materials for creating rosaries or strings of prayers beads – donations are invited to cover the cost. Alternatively there will be starter kits to purchase, or, if you have any unusual or beautiful beads at home that you’d like to use why not bring them along.

Andrew is Vicar of Felixstowe and Rural Dean of Colneys in the Diocese of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich. He is native to East Anglia emigrating to South Africa as a young adult in the 1970’s where he was ordained. MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID
Led by: Nick Ellis
When: Wednesday 13 March
Where: SP2, St Paul’s Church, Salisbury

Lives can be saved in a medical emergency if there are people around who know what to do and can administer first aid until professional help arrives. But what if the emergency involves mental rather than physical illness? This is an increasingly frequent scenario, in our churches and community centres or even on the doorstep of our homes.

This one day course aims to raise awareness of mental health issues and reduce the stigma surrounding them, as well as equipping participants to respond in practical ways in emergency situations involving mental ill health.

Nick Ellis lives in the diocese and is a Director of JJ Ellis Ltd, a provider of training services based in London and the South of England. He has been a front line serving Police Office in London for over 16 years where he has had to deal with mental health crises as well as supporting colleagues. He is a qualified MHFA trainer.

JARS OF CLAY
Led by: Tom Clammer
When: Thursday 21 March
Where: West Lavington Village Hall

As Christians, especially if we are ministers, we are often expected to be the strong ones, indeed some seem to think we are indestructible. In reality we are just as likely to experience frailty, sickness and suffering as anyone else.

In this pastoral theology day, Tom offers scriptural and theological resources to help us explore the nature of adversity in the Christian experience. He will share his own reflections and invite us to share our own.

Tom Clammer was formerly Precentor of Salisbury Cathedral. Following a diagnosis of Multiple Sclerosis in 2014 he has been reimagining his ministry and is now a freelance theologian, educator and spiritual accompanier.

FAITH IN A CHANGING CLIMATE

Led by: Richard Bartlett and Rebecca Boardman
When: Tuesday 9 April 10 am – 1 pm
Where: Chitterne Village Hall

What does it mean to ‘safeguard the integrity of creation and to sustain and renew life on earth’ in the face of a changing climate? What does this mean for the mission of the Church? Climate change is the most crucial issue facing our generation. In its most recent report the UN warned that we only have 12 years to act to limit global warming to 1.5°C above pre-industrial levels, beyond which even an extra half a degree of warming will significantly worsen the risk of droughts, floods, extreme heat and other natural disasters which in turn have an effect on a broad range of other issues including livelihood security, conflict, forced migration and gender equality. As a global challenge we need a global response.

Richard Bartlett is Director of Mission Engagement at USPG. He has served as a parish priest in Dorset and London, and as a USPG Missionary in Brazil. He now leads USPG’s engagement with the Churches of Britain and Ireland. Rebecca Boardman is a geography graduate with a specific interest in ecological justice as part of the mission of the church. She spent a year on a USPG volunteer placement with the Episcopal Church in the Philippines engaging with climate-smart agriculture and natural farming systems as well as the Church’s disaster response programme following Typhoon Haiyan. In 2018 Rebecca was nominated as a Youth Advisor for the European Christian Environment Network at the Conference of European Churches. She is now a Programme Manager at USPG.

USPG is the Anglican mission agency that partners churches and communities worldwide in God’s mission to enliven faith, strengthen relationships, unlock potential and champion justice.

TELLING YOUR STORY
Led by: Hilary Bond
When: Tuesday 18 June 10 am – 1 pm
Where: Michael Herbert Hall, Wilton

Stories are powerful and we love them! We watch them on TV, listen to them on the radio, read them in books, and even create and tell them on social media or over a coffee with friends. Jesus understood the power of a good story. He came from a tradition that greatly valued storytelling, and he used them to great effect.

Join storyteller extraordinaire Hilary Bond for this morning which will be about different ways of telling stories; bible stories, other stories that convey biblical truth, and the story that many of us want to share but often find hard to do – our own story. We will try out our skills on one another, and hopefully learn some new ones. It will be fun - come and see.

Hilary Bond is Assistant Curate in the Lytchetts and Upton Benefice.

THE LANGUAGE OF TEARS: EXPLORING THEIR GIFT, MYSTERY AND MEANING
Led by: David Runcorn
When: Thursday 20 June
Where: Dinton Village Hall

Tears are present in every part of life – not just sad or painful times. In the history of the church and in many cultures, they were particularly listened to as a sign of God’s presence and as a gift of prayer. By contrast, society and church today more often find them embarrassing. We hide them. Something so present and expressive in life is not welcomed. Drawing on themes from his recently published book, David will explore the lost gift, mystery and meaning of tears.

David Runcorn is a ‘free range priest’ – a speaker, writer, theological teacher, retreat leader and spiritual guide. He has worked in various ministry roles including parish priest, theological training, a Diocesan Director of Ministry and most recently as Director of Ordinands and Warden of Readers in the diocese of Gloucester. He lives in Tiverton. You can meet him on his website www.davidruncorn.com

Food should not only do us good it should also help us feel good. This day focuses on healthy recipes that are delicious to eat and nourish both body and soul. The picture opposite is from a previous Wellbeing day: ‘Home Cooking in the Spirit of Remembrance’ – you can see what fun we had. The Anzac biscuits and the Potato Peel Pie were particular favourites – recipes available!

JULY

ACCOUNTING DEMYSTIFIED
Led by: Liz Ashmead and the Diocesan Finance Team
When: Tuesday 2 July
Where: Church House, Salisbury

Among the things that clergy were not taught at theological college or during ministerial training was how to manage the parish finances. Churchwardens and PCC members too need these basic skills if we are to play a responsible part in scrutinising budgets and accounts and making financial decisions. This practical day event will provide a simple overview of parish finances and an introduction to the basic skills needed to interpret them, including:

- The role of the Benefice, PCC and Treasurer
- Trustee responsibilities
- Charity accounts – the basics
- Share and how it is calculated
- Parochial fees
- The Parish Giving Scheme
- An explanation of the DBF Accounts

Liz is our Diocesan Head of Finance.

CHAMPING FOR BEGINNERS
Led by: Richard Hancock
When: Friday 5 July
Where: Holme Lacy, near Hereford

What is champing, we hear you cry? Simply, it is the art of camping in ancient churches in beautiful places. Clergy who attended the rural residential last November were introduced to the idea in a fascinating presentation by Neil Best, Champing Champion for the Historic Churches Conservation Trust. Find out all about it here www.champing.co.uk.

Various of us are now interested in pursuing this idea as a potential fund raiser or novel form of outreach, so what better way to take things forward than to try it out for ourselves. We will overnight together in St Cuthbert’s Church with candlelight compline and take supper and breakfast at the nearby Mytton and Mermaid Coaching Inn. Come and bring your parishioners – number limited to 8 but if there is a lot of interest we will book more than one trip.

Richard Hancock is Vicar of Sixpenny Handley and Dorset Archdeaconry Rural Field Officer.
PIONEERING FOR ORDINARY PEOPLE

Led by: Ali Bridewell, Jo King and Michael Partridge
When: Tuesday 16 July 10 am – 1 pm
Where: Riverside House, Alabare Christian Care Centre, Salisbury

When you hear the word Pioneering does the thought ‘I could never do that, I’m just an ordinary person!’ pop into mind? If so this is the course for you!

For many people the very concept of ‘pioneering’ is an intimidating one. As is the word ‘mission’. In many cases far too many people rule themselves out as insignificant, unable or unqualified, believing that Pioneer is a title for very special, extraordinary people. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Come and join the discussion of how you can take a simple skill or passion and create a platform for reaching out to your community. You might be surprised at how much it isn’t rocket-science!

Ali Bridewell is Rector of Wellsprings Benefice. Jo King is Lay Worship Leader at Salisbury St Mark and Laverstock St Andrew and Executive and Volunteer Manager for Alabaré Christian Care and Support. Mike Partridge is Trustee of Rise 61 and a Change Coach.

SEPTEMBER

INTRODUCTION TO BIBLICAL HEBREW
Led by: Jon Riding
Where: Sarum College

Part 1
Wednesday 4 – Friday 6 September

Part 2
Monday 9 – Wednesday 11 September

Reading the Old Testament in Hebrew provides a much stronger sense of the original culture and perspective of its writers and their communities. Such insights can help us to appreciate better not only the Old Testament text but also its pivotal role as ‘scripture’ for the 1st century Jewish communities from which the New Testament and the early church emerged.

Hebrew Part 1 and Hebrew Part 2 together form ‘An Introduction to Biblical Hebrew’. Hebrew Part I is designed for the complete beginner whilst Hebrew Part 2 takes the study a little further. Both courses are based on John Dobson’s popular book ‘Learn Biblical Hebrew’. Hebrew Part 1 covers the first seven chapters of Dobson. Having a copy of Dobson (2nd edition) is a pre-requisite for both courses, Anyone intending to take Hebrew Part 2 should ensure that they have covered Dobson as far as the end of chapter seven before attending the course. By the end of the two courses the student is ready to begin reading portions of the Old Testament with the help of a lexicon.

Jon Riding spends most of his time working with United Bible Societies as a translation consultant where he leads the Machine Assisted Translation research team. Jon has taught NT Greek and Biblical Hebrew for various institutions in the UK and abroad. He worked closely with John Dobson as technical editor of the second edition of Learn New Testament Greek and the initial preparation for Learn Biblical Hebrew. He is also the director of the Sherborne Abbey Insight Programme: www.insight.sherborneabbey.com

For information about the cost of the courses please contact Sarum College. Clergy may use their annual CMD allowance towards the cost. Others are able to undertake the courses on a self funding basis.
I WILL LIFT UP MY EYES TO THE HILLS: A LAKELAND RETREAT

Led by: Alan Jeans
When: Monday 16 – Friday 20 September
Where: The Lakes and Fells of Cumbria

An opportunity to spend time away in the Lake District; praying, walking, and reflecting with a small group. We will travel up on the Monday, sharing cars where possible, walk Tuesday – Thursday, and travel home again on Friday. Accommodation will be in or near Keswick.

The walks will aim to be up to ten miles each day and the terrain can be quite challenging! We will reflect on scripture and explore prayer during the day. Evening reflections will aim to be a gathered experience in a local hostelry. Proper fell walking equipment including good boots and waterproofs is essential.

Alan is Archdeacon of Sarum and a keen and experienced walker.

DEEPENING DISCIPLESHIP 2: ENABLING OTHERS TO DISCOVER AND DEEPEN THEIR FAITH THROUGH OUR MINISTRIES

Led by: Debbie Orriss and Steve Inglis

When: Tuesday 17 September
Where: Durweston Village Hall

When: Wednesday 2 October
Where: Urchfont Village Hall

Building on work done in Deepening Discipleship 1, this workshop will focus on the missional nature of authorised lay ministry. How do we enable those we minister amongst to discover and deepen their faith?

Debbie Orriss is Discipleship Coordinator for the Diocese of Salisbury with over twenty years’ experience of ministry as a Church Army Evangelist, including enabling adults in ministry. Steve Inglis is Diocese of Salisbury Ministry for Mission Resource Officer with experience of working in diverse missional contexts.
THE MISSIONARY WORK OF A CHAPLAIN

Led by: Bishop Karen and guest chaplains
When: Wednesday 25 September
Where: Durweston Village Hall

Join Bishop Karen and a number of Chaplains from various contexts as we reflect on the missionary work of a Chaplain. Together we will explore faith sharing, handling spiritual conversations, being a Christian presence in a secular institution and what being a bridge between church and community can look like.

Whether you are already a Chaplain, exploring it as a potential vocation, involved in a similar context or keen to learn from transferable good practice, whatever your situation, we would love to see you there.

Bishop Karen is Bishop of Sherborne with responsibility for encouraging, supporting and resourcing the work of chaplaincy in the diocese.

“I planted, Apollos watered but God gave the growth”

1 Corinthians 3:6
OF WATER AND THE SPIRIT
Led by: Tom Clammer
When: Tuesday 1 October
Where: Glebe Hall, Winterbourne Earls

This day is for all those who participate in the Church’s ministry of baptism, whether as officiating ministers or as those involved in baptism preparation and follow up. How do we interpret the baptismal liturgy meaningfully, both for the parents and godparents of infant candidates and for those approaching baptism as adults? And how do we enable it to speak to those who are already members of Christ’s body in a way that deepens faith and renews commitment? Focusing particularly on the Decision, the Promises, and the symbols of light, water and oil, we will explore this rite of initiation that is both familiar and challenging.

Tom Clammer has been a rural parish priest, and more recently Canon Precentor of Salisbury Cathedral. He is now a freelance theologian, educator and spiritual accompanier. His doctorate focused on the Church of England’s theology of evil.

THE NOBLE QUINCE
Led by: Sara Jacson
When: Saturday 5 October
Where: Grove Farm House, Melbury Abbas

Raw quinces are unattractive, they are knobbly, hard and sour, but simmered with sugar and spices they are transformed as if by magic into the fragrant dark red paste that the Spanish call ‘membrillo’. Enjoy with manchego or any hard cheese.

Spend a day at Grove Farm House harvesting quinces and learning how to make membrillo and other quince themed goodies such as chutney and jelly to take home. Apples, blackberries and rowanberries may make an appearance too.

Sara is your hostess at Grove Farm House and is well known for her culinary skills. She enjoys Autumn with all the hunter gathering of nature’s harvest. After harvest comes preserving which is much more fun when done in company! Places limited to 6.
Pray + Serve = Grow. A simple equation. Done, box ticked. Or is it? We are ‘praying’ and ‘serving’ so surely we are growing, personally, corporately and numerically, correct? Or are we? Is there perhaps a bit more to this than we think?

Whatever your experience, and whatever your context, join Jill Hopkinson, Lindy Cameron, John Rennie and Gerald Osborne as we dive into unpacking this hugely significant topic and explore questions such as:

- How do we move from social to missional? And what is the difference?
- What about timing? With the seeming demand for the immediate, are we ultimately missing out through impatience?
- What do we mean by growth? What about the word mission? What do we mean when we use the word?
- How do we make prayer central to all we do?
- If we ‘serve’ without a missional thrust is it like watching a film with the sound turned off? Is it not incomplete? Likewise if we watch a film with the visual turned off – it does not make sense. Maybe we need to consider watching the film as it was intended – sound and visual working together to draw us into the story

Come, bring your voice to the discussion so that we can see and hear for ourselves!

Jill Hopkinson is Tutor in Rural Ministry at Sarum College, Lindy Cameron is Licensed Lay Pioneer Minister of Swanage and Studland, John Rennie is Lay Training Tutor for Sherborne and former Deanery Missioner and Gerald Osborne is Rural Dean of Pewsey and Associate Priest of The Vale of Pewsey.

SEX AND THE CITY OF GOD: GOOD DISAGREEMENT AND THE LIMITS OF DIVERSITY
Led by: Ed Condry, Jayme Reaves and Alastair McKay
When: Friday 1 November
Where: Amesbury Baptist Church

This day is the third of our ‘Sex and the City of God’ study days, exploring the issues around human sexuality from a variety of perspectives. In this day, which is also All Saints’ Day, we will be asking whether there are limits to the diversity of conviction and belief that the Church is able to live with and if so, where those limits are and what happens when they are reached. We will consider the differing world views of Provinces of the Anglican Communion, the multi faceted witness of scripture and the practical steps that the Church is taking to respond faithfully amid current tensions and concerns.

Ed Condry was formerly the Bishop of Ramsbury. Prior to that he was Canon Treasurer and Director of Education at Canterbury Cathedral where he was responsible for organising theological education for priests and bishops from around the Anglican Communion.

Jayme Reaves is a public theologian who has over 20 years’ experience as a consultant, researcher, facilitator, and lecturer in the US, UK, Former Yugoslavia, and Northern Ireland on the intersections between theology, biblical studies, gender, peace/conflict, and memory. She is Coordinator for the Centre for Encountering the Bible at Sarum College.

Alastair McKay was formerly Director of Bridge Builders and has worked extensively in the field of mediation and conflict transformation.

Forthcoming event …

We will be running a fourth ‘Sex and the City of God’ study day early in 2020:

SEX AND THE CITY OF GOD: BIOLOGY, GENDER AND IDENTITY

Watch the online booking system for details.
‘God breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and the man became a living being.’ This day offers a practical introduction to using our breath, our bodies and voices in worship and preaching.

We will work on techniques, skills and tips that enhance our ability to speak effectively in public. Through workshops and exercises we will approach the body and the breath as living expressions of an incarnational theology.

Colin trained and worked as an actor before becoming a screenwriter whose work has won numerous awards and been broadcast all over the world. He still regularly works with actors. He is currently curate in the Vale of Pewsey Benefice and now finds that the theatre training comes in handy.

WHO’S MISSING?

Led by: The Team at St Mary Longfleet
When: Tuesday 19 November 10 am – 1 pm
Where: St Mary Longfleet

Everyone loves Where’s Wally. The popular books contain pages filled with activity and the famous red and white striped character hidden somewhere in the midst, waiting to be found. But unless you know who you are looking for, it’s just a lot of activity on a page – you would not know if Wally was missing and ultimately you would miss the whole point.

Could there be a similar issue in your Church? Do you ever look at your Church Community and ask yourself, who is missing? Could it be that in all the ‘activity’ we fail to see the missing people from our surrounding community and because we don’t know who or where to look we miss an opportunity to join in the mission of God?

On the other hand, perhaps it is glaringly obvious, and you are all too aware of a missing generation or missing demographic within your Church Community.

Whatever your situation, come along and join the team from St Mary Longfleet, to explore how we identify and reach those who are missing in the Church. This morning will be a fantastic opportunity to assess our own Church cultures and look at ways we may inadvertently keep people at bay, as well as explore what it looks like to live out authentic faith in community.

We’d love to see you there – we don’t want you to be missing from this conversation!
William Blake (1757 – 1827) was an English poet, painter and printmaker. Largely unrecognized during his lifetime, Blake is regarded today as a major, if iconoclastic figure, and a religious visionary whose art and poetry prefigured, and came to influence, the Romantic movement. Many people know him as the author of the words of the hymn ‘Jerusalem’, that unofficial English national anthem.

This new exhibition showcases paintings, prints and watercolours from the Tate’s unrivalled collection to provide an overview of Blake’s unique and original art. We will meet up at St Matthew’s Westminster where a member of the Blake Society will give an introductory talk then move across to the Tate Britain where we will lunch and visit the collection.

“And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England’s mountains green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
On England’s pleasant pastures seen?

And did the Countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among these dark Satanic Mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds, unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!

I will not cease from mental fight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand,
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England’s green and pleasant land.”

REFLECTIONS OF THE HEART: A LIGHTLY GUIDED RETREAT

Led by: Karen Rizzello
When: Monday 22 July
Where: Great Chalfield Manor

‘Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God’. Matthew 5.8.

We offer a lightly guided retreat exploring the human heart and our relationship with God through readings from scripture and prayers punctuated with ample time for silent reflection. The day will appeal to those who are seeking time out with a framework which provides reflective thought and exploration of our own journey to free our hearts and open ourselves to God’s voice. It will run from 10 am to 4 pm with Morning, Mid-day and Afternoon reflections.

In order to open our hearts we need to know ourselves: ‘As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a whole heart and a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts, and understands every intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will let you find Him; but if you forsake Him, He will reject you forever.’ 1 Chronicles 28.9.

Please bring your own packed lunch. Drinks available with donations.

Karen Rizzello has a background in international business and has recently answered the call to Holy Orders. She is a Lay Canon Emeritus of Salisbury Cathedral. Before ordination, Karen practiced group reflective meditation for over 20 years. Since ordination, she is developing her own reflective practice in the exploration of silence, meditation and Celtic Traditions. Karen does not see herself as an expert in this discipline but feels called to sit alongside others to explore and liberate our spiritual selves.
TEMPERAMENT AND SPIRITUALITY
Led by: Jane Gibbs
When: Tuesday 10 September
Where: St Paul’s, Canford Heath

The four temperaments have been thought, written and talked about since classical times. This leisurely session will be a game of two halves. First we shall look at what the four temperaments are and examine our own leanings. Then we shall look separately at four different approaches to relating to God, with time to explore them in the quietness.

Does your approach match your temperament? Or do you diverge from the expected route? Expect some surprises.

If the weather plays ball, you might want to spend some time walking in the neighbourhood, so suitable clothing and shoes would be an asset. Otherwise you need no preparation or previous knowledge to participate – we’ll learn together.

This workshop is presented by Jane Gibbs, who has been involved in education for much of her adult life. She has been a Myers Briggs practitioner for nearly 20 years and loves to see people’s faces light up in these sessions when they understand a bit more about themselves.

WELLBEING RESOURCES

MEDIATION

In situations of pastoral difficulty or relationship breakdown the Diocese is able to offer professional mediation services. Within the Region we have a team of mediators who operate reciprocally between Dioceses. Our mediators are trained by Bridge Builders and usually work in pairs but are able to adapt in response to the dynamics of particular situations. The first step in setting up mediation is to have an informal discussion about your needs and hopes.

We are usually able to offer mediation without charge but the expenses of the mediators such as travel should be covered by those using their services. The Diocese can help with these costs if necessary.

If you would like to discuss mediation in confidence contact Jane Charman
T: 01722 411944 or E: jane.charman@salisbury.anglican.org

RETREATS

It is expected that all stipendiary clergy will make an annual retreat, typically the inside of a week, and other clergy and ministers are encouraged to do the same. At present there is no Diocesan funding available for retreats but parishes are asked to treat ministerial retreats as an expense of office.

The Retreat Association is a registered charity and is an excellent source of information with downloadable publications about all aspects of making a retreat and online links to many retreat centres nationwide. You can also order a copy of their annual journal from

SOCIETY OF ST MARY AND ST MARTHA

The Society of St Mary and Martha at Sheldon near Exeter is an open and welcoming retreat house run by a resident lay Christian Community assisted by staff and volunteers.

Their specialist work is to support people in Christian ministry, especially at times of stress, crisis, burnout or breakdown. This rather discreet aspect of their work sits within a much more broadly based retreat and education resource open to everyone.

The founding story of Sheldon centres around Jesus' encounters with Mary, Martha and Lazarus - rich stories which continue to challenge and inspire us today.
