God’s people will shine like the sun in their Father’s kingdom

Matthew 13:43
All but one of these 13 words are in the grid. Can you spot the one that’s NOT there?

corn
and weeds
grow
together
until harvest
then keep good but burn
bad

Which one of the flowers is not in the picture?
A word search for you to solve - all the words are hidden somewhere!

parable  seed  grow  together kingdom  field  weeds  harvest heaven  sleeping  wheat  burn
good  enemy  sprouted

Join up just the odd dots.
1, 3, 5, 7, 9 and so on to 73

Dad, you’ve been working hard in the garden all day. What are you growing?
Tired!

Produced by the Diocese of Bath and Wells, Youth and Children’s Parish’s Team 17 July 2011
There are six pieces still to put into this puzzle, but only five gaps

Draw in the five pieces you need and find the one that’s left over

Loving God
We give you thanks for the beautiful plants that grow in our gardens and fields, and for those plants that we’d rather not have in the garden—the weeds. You made them all.
Amen