Knowledge and understanding is	Developing/Emerging Pupils know that Christians believe that although God made the world humans spoiled that friendship with God, and that Christians call this the Fall. Pupils are aware of the story of Adam and Eve but cannot give the detail. Pupils know that Christians believe that God gives guidelines such as the 10 commandments and offers forgiveness when they fall short. Pupils understand that many Christians believe they should be stewards or caretakers of God’s creation.	Excelling Using this knowledge and understanding pupils can raise relevant questions in response to their enquiry into the Christian concept of creation and Fall. Pupils are able to discuss the story of Adam and Eve and explore their own ideas about what this story may have to say about human nature. They can make a connection between the Genesis 3 story and the parable of the Lost Son. They can locate this in the ‘Big Story’ of Christainity
