Knowledge and understanding is	Developing/Emerging Pupils will know that Christians see Holy Week as the culmination of Jesus’ earthly life, leading to his death and resurrection. Pupils will be able to say what some of the events of Holy week means for Christians. Pupils know that most Christians believe that Jesus rose from the dead and so is alive today. They know that for some Christians today standing up for your faith can risk persecution. 	Excelling  Using this knowledge and understanding pupils can raise relevant questions in response to their enquiry into the Christian concept of Salvation. Pupils are able to discuss the idea of Jesus rising from the dead and can make connections to the ‘Big Story’ of Christianity. They recognise that for Christians believing that Jesus died and rose again is challenging. They recognise that this belief can make a difference to how believers live their lives. They can express their own view if this was a Good Friday?
