Putting the Child at the Centre
Using the Leuven Scales as an Indicator of Quality

Led by Helen Tate,
Early Excellence Curriculum Consultant

Explore the dynamic relationship between the child, the adult and the environment in this 2 day workshop for Early Years Practitioners, Headteachers, Managers and Senior Leaders.

This unique training opportunity will utilise Early Excellence’s Interactive Environment, enabling leaders and practitioners to both reflect on learning environments and plan for improvements.

The Importance of Well Being & Involvement
Wednesday 8th March 2017

- Revisit the principles of effective early years practice and practitioner values
- Refine practitioner skills in using The Leuven Scales for well being and involvement, considering their impact on learning and their connection with the characteristics of effective learning
- Explore how the Leuven Scales can be used to evaluate and develop quality provision

Taking action
Wednesday 24th May 2017

- Evaluate the effectiveness of adult interactions and engagement
- Review and rethink approaches to observation and documentation
- Discuss how children’s natural interests and fascinations can be used to motivate and inspire them leading to greater involvement and deeper learning

Only 30 places are available on this highly specialised course, to allow each participant the individual focus needed from Helen and the Interactive Environment.
