Church House Staff
Bishops’ Offices

Contacts Guide

Updated 3 December 2021
Welcome

We are all called to love and serve God and our neighbours.

We know that local churches are best placed to understand and respond to God’s calling to serve in their place and context. Therefore, the Church House staff and Bishops’ Offices seek to serve our churches, enabling clergy, licensed ministers and many other volunteers to focus their energy for mission and ministry in their communities.

This guide aims to make it easy for churches to access the resources available and contact the relevant staff for information and support. Alternatively, please visit our Diocesan website: www.salisbury.anglican.org

Mission, Ministry and Communications

We encourage mission and ministry across our communities and parishes to be locally led and centrally supported, in line with the Diocesan priorities for growth. This includes fostering a culture of vocation (lay and ordained), investing in ministerial formation, supporting a genuine localised strategy for mission (including discipleship and social justice), and developing the potential of our digital engagement.

The team seeks to support, resource and enable clergy and laity to flourish in their discipleship, ministry and mission.

Jonathan Triffitt

Director of Mission, Ministry and Communication (MMC) and Deputy Diocesan Secretary

Jonathan leads and manages the team in supporting and serving the vocation of the local church in three key areas: discipleship, leadership and community transformation. The team supports and resources local churches in partnership with the Diocesan Board of Education (DBE) and recognises that work must be grounded in the gifts of the places we serve.

Spirituality

Spiritual accompaniment is a confidential and prayerful relationship of trust between two people in which one listens to the other, enabled by the Holy Spirit, to help them discern the place and work of God in their life and to deepen that relationship.

It has been part of the practice of the Church since early times. It is available for those who want to grow in faith and spiritual practice and for those who are spiritually searching.

Did you know that there are more than 90 spiritual accompaniers in the Dorset and Wiltshire regions?

Communications

Sharing our vision, the stories and the history that makes us the Diocese of Salisbury.

Our role is to communicate our faith and activities, all lived out in our parishes, schools and communities through the weekly Grapevine and social media. We offer practical advice and guidance to parishes, schools, and those in ministry and act as the Diocesan Press Office, handling media enquiries.

The big story is known through our little stories

Our Communications team is in transition.

We have secured experienced diocesan communications officers Amber Jackson and Grace McSharry, to support us with the production of our publications (e.g. Grapevine, Working Together), assist with the diocesan website and cover social media.

Sherborne Office

The office is at Ash Farm Courtyard Stourpaine Dorset DT11 8PW.

The office serves the needs of the Bishop of Sherborne and the Archdeacons of Sherborne and Dorset in their ministry throughout the Sherborne area. The office deals with the daily administration for the Bishop and Archdeacons, including being the first line of advice for churchwardens and clergy on anything regarding churches, faculties, or pastoral re-organisation. It undertakes the administration for all the appointments of clergy in the Sherborne area, associated licensing and the Permission to Officiate (PTOs) for retired clergy moving into the area. It manages parochial vacancies, issues Statements of Particulars, ensures pastoral support for clergy and their families, and coordinates ministry reviews. The Bishop has responsibility in the Diocese for lay ministry and Chaplains and her Secretary assists with this work.
