

Anti-slavery webinars

The Clewer Initiative is offering a series of free webinars available over Anti-Slavery Week (14th – 18th October) to raise awareness of modern slavery and share effective practice.

Hosted by Public Health England, the West Midlands Anti-Slavery Network and West Midlands Police the webinars will run from 9am – 9.45am on the following dates:

- Monday 14th October 2019: Introduction to modern slavery and spotting the signs
- Tuesday 15th October 2019: Modern slavery, wider criminality and vulnerability
- Wednesday 16th October 2019: Homelessness and modern slavery
- Thursday 17th October 2019: Technology and cybercrime
- Friday 18th October 2019: Every contact counts

For those based in or around Birmingham, on Friday 18th October 2019 there will be face to face stakeholder networking opportunities and a marketplace at 10am-12pm at PHE Offices, St Philip's Place, Birmingham. This will provide an opportunity to speak with key agencies involved in identifying and responding to modern slavery.
