

Farewell Fiona

Last month we said a fond farewell to Fiona Torrance, who has been working at Church House for 24 years.

Fiona was the PA to the past 3 Diocesan Secretaries and was well known to many people in our parishes.

Sarah Foxall, PA to 4 successive Bishops of Ramsbury, was just one of many who paid tribute to Fiona.

She said:

"Although I retired from the Ramsbury Office more than 10 years ago I am still reminded of Fiona's friendliness and willingness to help throughout the time we worked for the Diocese.

"There are many past colleagues of Fiona who will be sorry to hear that she is leaving.

"Over the years, Fiona has been the warm and welcoming face of the Diocese, known both to visitors to the Diocesan Office and to those calling by phone. She has efficiently sent out papers for more meetings than any reader would wish to attend, and has been present and cheerful at countless Diocesan Synods and other meetings."

Diocesan Secretary David Pain also thanked Fiona for her long service for the Diocese.
