Guidance from the National Church

In preparation for opening churches soon, the National Church has issued some preliminary guidance leaflets on conducting weddings, baptisms, private prayer and funerals: they can be found here.

These should be read in conjunction with the recent advice sent out by our Archdeacons in a mailing to all parishes and parish officers. This is a copy of what they sent, in case you missed it first time round.

The guidance does get updated regularly, so it is important you continue to check it and add the relevant links to your browser.
