

Study Day for Clergy Ministering in Retirement

The annual study day for retired clergy is taking place on Tuesday 29th October at Port Regis School, near Shaftesbury.

We are delighted that our keynote speaker this year will be Graham Maule, well-known with John Bell as a writer of hymns and a member of the Wild Goose Resource Group of the Iona Community. Graham will also lead one of the afternoon workshops.

We are also delighted that the Archdeacon of Sherborne, the Ven Penny Sayer, will preach and preside at the Eucharist with which the Day ends.

Sarum College Bookshop will provide a bookstall and we hope once again to have representatives from the Pensions Board's housing section.

Arrival and registration are from 9.30am when coffee and pastries will be available. Lunch will be provided and if you have any special dietary requirement then please do let us know. We're grateful to the excellent catering team at Port Regis for looking after us on the day, which will end at about 4pm.

If you will be joining us, please choose your workshop and return the Booking Form to Louise Appleby at the address below or by email to louise.appleby@salisbury.anglican.org by Friday 27th September 2019.

Be sure to mention if you have any specific access needs so that the necessary arrangements can be made.

If however you need any help or want to get in touch, Louise can be contacted by email or on 01722 411944.

As the timetable requires us to move to different buildings, please be appropriately prepared for inclement weather. Some previous participants have found some venues a little cold; school heating is unlikely to be on until after half-term, so please be prepared with warm clothing.

The day is being organised by the Revd Canon John Wood, Retirement Officer for Dorset and Sherborne and the Revd Canon Ann Philp, Retirement Officer for Wilts and Sarum.

Their contact details for all matters regarding retired clergy are johnsamwood@me.com and acphilp55@virginmedia.com respectively.
