Deanery Synod Elections Spring 2014

If you are a member of the Church of England who cares about its future, about the way in which it communicates and lives out the Gospel, please:

- consider standing for election as a Deanery Synod member or
- encouraging someone else who would represent your church well to stand
- attending your Annual Parochial Church Meeting in Spring 2014 and voting for someone who will work to ensure the full breadth of the Church of England
- think about whether you or someone you know might stand for General Synod 2015
- If you think that the balance of members is not achieved through the election process then at the first meeting of the new Deanery Synod you can request the Area/Rural Dean to make extra places for:
 - Co-opted members – up to three per house of clergy and laity
 - Clergy holding Permission to Officiate within the deanery
