

3. If you have previously served on General Synod, please could you state how you voted in the final vote on the Ordination of Women to the Episcopate in 2013?

I have not previously served on General Synod. (Peter Breckwoldt)

The voting records of General Synod members are in the public domain. They are published on the Church of England website after each group of sessions. The record of the final vote on the Ordination of Women to the Episcopate can be viewed here:

<https://www.churchofengland.org/media/2033720/item%20503.pdf>

This was actually in July 2014 not 2013. As you can see, I voted in favour. (Jane Charman)

I have not stood for General Synod. (Tim Gomm)

I have never before served on General Synod. (John Hawthorne)

I voted for the legislation which allowed women to be ordained and consecrated Bishop. (Alan Jeans)

I have not served on GS before, but if I had been there in 2013, I would have voted in favour. (Chris Tebbutt)

N/A (Jonathan Triffitt)

I have not served on the General Synod before. (Thomas Woodhouse)