

3. If you have previously served on General Synod, please could you state how you voted in the final vote on the Ordination of Women to the Episcopate in 2013?

Against. Members' voting has been shown on the Church of England website. (Paul Boyd-Lee)

Not applicable as I have not previously served on General Synod. (Fenella Cannings-Jurd)

I voted for the legislation. If anyone wants to check out how their reps voted on any issue during the General Synod over the past 5 years all the electronic voting results listed by individuals alphabetically is available on the Church of England website. (Chris Corteen)

I haven't served on General Synod before – but if I had, I would have voted for Women Bishops. (Gill de Berry)

I have not previously served at General Synod. (Richard Jones)

Not applicable. (Keith Leslie)

I voted in favour in 2013 and in 2012. (Debbie McIsaac)

I have never served on General Synod. (Doreen Riley)

I have not but would definitely have voted for the ordination of women to the Episcopate had I been on General Synod. (Paul Taylor)
