

5. Please declare your membership of any campaigning organisations, for example WATCH, Forward in Faith, Reform, Changing Attitude, AMIE etc. If you are, or have been, an office holder in such an organisation, please state what post you held, with dates.

I warmly commend my election address that shows clearly I have wide range of interests across the life of the church. (Peter Breckwoldt)

I have been a member of WATCH ('Women and the Church') since it was founded in 1996 and am currently the Diocesan WATCH contact. During the last 5 years I have been a member of the WATCH General Synod Task Group. This group meets before each group of sessions to review the agenda and provide information and advice to Synod members on points of interest or concern. (Jane Charman)

None. (Tim Gomm)

I am a member of Forward in Faith. I was Regional Dean of The Marches from their inception until 2001. For the same period I was Chairman of FiF in the Gloucester Diocese. (John Hawthorne)

I am a member of WATCH [Women And The Church]. I have not held any office within WATCH, but attended meetings in London and York during the General Synod sessions. I have also been a member of the Affirming Catholic Group on Synod, but have not and do not hold an office in that group. (Alan Jeans)

I am not affiliated to any campaigning organisation. (Chris Tebbutt)

I have previously been a member of WATCH, but hold no current membership of any campaigning organisation. (Jonathan Triffitt)

I hold no membership of any campaigning organisation. (Thomas Woodhouse)
