

5. Please declare your membership of any campaigning organisations, for example WATCH, Forward in Faith, Reform, Changing Attitude, AMIE etc. If you are, or have been, an office holder in such an organisation, please state what post you held, with dates.

I have always tried to be briefed as widely as possible. Sometimes that requires membership of an organisation, those such as Forward in Faith, Reform, and AIME mentioned above would be included but I have neither been nor am an office holder in any of these. (Paul Boyd-Lee)

I am running for election with the support of Inclusive Church, an umbrella group representing the organisations: Inclusive Church, Women and the Church (WATCH), Group for Rescinding the Act of Synod (GRAS), Modern Church, Changing Attitude, Affirming Catholicism and the Society of Catholic Priests (SCP). To quote the campaign's website: 'We seek laity who will represent the will of the majority of people in the Church of England being for inclusion and opposed to discrimination'.
(Fenella Cannings-Jurd)

I am not a member of any particular body, organisation, lobby group etc. (Chris Corteen)

I am not a member (and never have been a member) of any of these campaigning group. (Gill de Berry)

I have never been a member of any of the above campaigning organisations. (Richard Jones)

As a prospective lay representative at General Synod I am aware of the wide spectrum of views held by the these and other differing organisations. However, I am not nor have I ever been a member of such groups or organisations. (Keith Leslie)

I am not a member of any campaigning organisation. From February to July 2015, I was the Secretary of the Open Synod Group which does not campaign on any issue and intentionally avoids affiliation with any particular cause or position. (Debbie McIsaac)

I am a Forward in Faith member. (Doreen Riley)

Not a member. (Paul Taylor)
