INTRODUCTION TO THE AWARDS

The Dean’s and Bishop’s awards are designed to encourage choristers to achieve a high standard of singing and musicianship. The Dean’s and Bishop’s awards integrate with the training used by choirs that use the RSCM Voice for Life scheme. The Dean’s award is a requirement for those wishing to proceed to the Bishop’s Award, and the Bishop’s Award is a requirement for those wishing to proceed to the RSCM Gold award. The Voice for Life scheme enables singers to develop their musical skills and understanding within the context of their choir. The awards have been validated by the RSCM – the Dean’s award at Bronze standard and the Bishop’s Award at Silver standard. The Voice for Life scheme provides opportunities for the singer’s development to be affirmed beyond their own church, through the Diocesan Awards and the RSCM’s regional network.

Successful candidates are entitled to wear the Dean’s Award medallion or the Bishop’s Award medallion as appropriate to their award. Candidates from churches that are not part of Salisbury Diocese may wish to wear the RSCM Bronze Award medallion with green ribbon (equivalent to the Dean’s Award) or the RSCM Silver Award medallion with purple ribbon (equivalent to the Bishop’s Award).

The awards are open to choristers of all ages and denominations who are members or either Anglican Churches in the Diocese of Salisbury or choirs affiliated to the Royal School of Church Music (Wessex Area), and the syllabi have been carefully compiled with this in mind.

EXAMINATIONS, ENQUIRIES & ENTRIES

These syllabi are valid for examinations from 1 January 2011 until further notice.

Details of any changes to the syllabi, examination arrangements, entry fees, medallion costs and the contact details for the Awards Secretary will be posted on the Diocesan Website at: http://www.salisburyanglican.org.uk/existing/showpage.asp?page=302 (or go to the diocesan website, http://www.salisburyanglican.org.uk select select 'Diocesan Support' and follow the links to Music, Salisbury Diocesan Choral Festival Group and Awards) and, if possible, announced in the Diocesan Newspaper (Sarum Link).

Entries must be submitted to the Awards Secretary either by post or email in accordance with the instructions on the website.

Examinations will be held as notified on the website. Successful candidates who so wish will be presented formally with their medallion and ribbon at the Diocesan Choirs Festival held at the Cathedral (normally in June), but may receive it in their own church and wear it as soon as possible after the examination results are known.

The Awards Secretary will be pleased to answer any enquiries.

EXAMINATION CONDITIONS FOR BOTH AWARDS

1. There is no age limit on candidates for these awards.
2. There will be two examiners, normally both will be RSCM-validated.
3. The examination will take around 25 minutes (Dean’s Award) or 30 minutes (Bishop’s Award), with the time allocated to each section approximately in proportion to the marks available. Solely for the purposes of examiner training and moderation, a recording may be made which shall remain the property of the Salisbury Diocesan Choral Festival Group. An additional 5 minutes (Dean’s Award) and 10 minutes (Bishop’s Award) will be allowed between candidates for examiner administration and this should be born in mind when planning the time required for a visit.
4. One examiner will act as accompanist. The music provided for the accompanist must include the accompaniment the candidate expects (i.e. not a melody line hymn book) and must be in the key the candidate wishes to perform in, the accompanist will not transpose the accompaniment.
5. Candidates will be given somewhere to warm up before the examination.
6. Copies of all prepared pieces, the items selected in Section E and any other relevant materials should be provided for both the examiners. [Candidates should bring 3 copies of all music]
7. The use of illegal photocopies will automatically disqualify a candidate. (See page 5)
8. Entry fee cheques should be made payable to “Salisbury Diocesan Choral Festival Group” and sent with the entry form or payment may be made electronically.
9. The Salisbury Diocesan Choral Festival Group (SDCFG) reserves the right to refuse an examination entry without stating a reason. In such cases, the examination fee will be refunded in full.
10. In the event of non-attendance at an examination, through illness or emergency, a letter of explanation must be sent immediately to the Awards Secretary. A refund, or credit slip for future entry, of up to 50% of the examination fee, may be issued at the discretion of the SDCFG.
11. On completing the entry form, candidates (and their representatives and trainers) are deemed to be accepting the entry conditions, and the examiner’s musical judgements.
12. The result of the examination will be sent to the candidate (or representative, as indicated) by post, usually within two weeks of the examination. Examiners will not divulge results at the time of the examination.
13. Any appeal, concerning either the conduct or the outcome of the examination, must be made in writing to the Awards Secretary, setting out in detail the grounds on which the appeal is lodged, no later than seven days after receiving the result. The examiner is not to be contacted directly. After due consultation, and not later than one month after receipt of the appeal, a response will be issued by the Awards Secretary, this decision is final. If the appeal is successful, a re-examination or alternatively a full refund of the entry fee, will be offered.
14. Candidates churches must ensure that appropriate arrangements are in place for the protection and supervision of young people and vulnerable adults when examiners visit or when they visit another venue for the purposes of the examinations.
15. The venue for the examinations (which need not be a church) should be appropriately heated or ventilated and should provide an examination room with piano (a digital piano is acceptable), a warm up area for candidates and cloakroom facilities. If examiners are examining for an extended period it is hoped that suitable refreshments will be provided.
16. A Child Protection cover form (at the back of this document) must be completed and returned as instructed on the form.

STRUCTURE AND DISTRIBUTION OF MARKS

The structure of this award reflects that of the Voice for Life scheme. There are five sections, only four of which are examined. (Section D, which is not assessed during the examination, is satisfied by means of appropriate testimonials to be submitted with the candidate’s application.) The marks are distributed as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>Using the voice well</td>
<td>50%</td>

The pass mark is 60%. In order to pass, candidates should demonstrate consistency throughout the examination, though a pass mark in every section is not required. Successful candidates will be classified as follows:

- 85%+ Distinction
- 75%+ Merit
- 60%+ Pass

Examination order:

Candidates should be aware that the examiners will conduct the examination in the order they consider best and in many cases will examine section C (Repertoire) immediately following the singing of the ‘Own Choice’ items to which the Repertoire questions relate.
USE OF PHOTOCOPIES IN THE EXAMINATIONS

It is permissible to use photocopies of material that is in the public domain – please do not forget that in addition to the composer’s and author’s copyrights (which last for seventy years following their death) there is also a graphic copyright owned by the publisher that exists for twenty five years from the date of publication.

The syllabus makes it quite clear that the use of illegal photocopies is prohibited in these examinations and candidates will be disqualified if they use, or provide for the examiners use, such copies.

It is appreciated that this can cause problems where the music that is chosen is available in large volumes. The Music Publishers Association Code of Practice for copying music allows for copying in such cases for Adjudicators at Music Festivals but not for examiners use. In general in order to make copies for use of the examiners the person entering the candidates would need to obtain individual permission to copy from the copyright holders and to document this permission for the examiners.

However to alleviate the situation we have obtained agreement from Oxford University Press and Canterbury Press (Hymns Ancient and Modern) that copies may be made for our examiners use on the terms detailed below. It is important that these conditions are strictly observed as the publishers can withdraw this privilege at any time. All copies made under this agreement will be retained by the examiners and destroyed after the examinations.

Oxford University Press

Two copies may be made of the following: (1) works contained in The New Church Anthem Book or The New Oxford Easy Anthem Book provided Oxford University Press owns the copyright, works which are owned by others may not be copied. (2) Words and tunes that appear in the following hymnals where the copyright is owned by Oxford University Press may also be copied: New English Hymnal, Ancient and Modern New Standard, Ancient and Modern Revised, Common Praise.

Application should be made to the Awards Secretary with the entry stating the items that are to be copied and enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope that the Awards Secretary will use to supply OUP authorisation labels. The Awards Secretary will provide a return to OUP after each examination session stating the works that have been copied.

Canterbury Press (Hymns Ancient and Modern)

Two copies may be made of words and tunes that appear in the following hymnals where the copyright is owned by the Canterbury Press (Hymns Ancient and Modern): New English Hymnal, Ancient and Modern New Standard, Ancient and Modern Revised, Common Praise. Where a third party owns the copyright the items cannot be copied under this permission.

b) Candidates should choose beforehand one hymn, anthem or worship song suitable for one season (e.g., Advent) or festival (e.g., Christ the King) celebrated in their church. Candidates will be asked to explain the significance of their choice and of the festival or season chosen and relate them to appropriate bible reading. (Candidates are not expected to sing this item) The selected season or festival should be indicated on the entry form.

c) The examiners will ask straightforward questions on the meaning and significance of any two further seasons or festivals, and ask the candidate for a choice of a suitable piece of music which might be sung (by choir or congregation) during each season or festival

3. Ministry

Candidates will be asked to explain, with reference to a chosen piece of music, how music helps people to pray. They should prepare comments on both the music and the words, and are encouraged to show awareness of the choir or singing group’s contribution to the worshipping life of their church or chapel. (Candidates should bring three copies of their chosen piece.)

Candidates are not expected to perform any examples in Section E, but they may refer to their copies of the chosen music. Their understanding of issues raised in this section may vary according to age and experience, and answers may be expressed in straightforward language.

SECTION A USING THE VOICE WELL

Choir trainers, please ensure that your candidates are fully prepared and receive no surprises during their examination, for example being unaware of the requirement to sing some verses of their psalm and hymn unaccompanied.

The performance of each piece will be assessed on the following:

   Good candidates will:
   • Stand and hold their music well throughout the examination.
   Poor candidates might:
   • Bury their heads in their music and sing into their copies.
   • Slouch, tap their feet or fidget as they sing.

2. Vocal technique: breath management, tone, diction, range
   Good candidates will:
   • Breathe in appropriate places.
   • Sustain the sound to the end of a line or phrase.
   • Produce good, full tone, even at the extremes of their range.
   • Project the voice well.
   • Produce good vowel sounds.
   • Articulate consonants clearly.
   • Be able to sing a legato line without aspirating.
   • Be able to sing wide leaps without breaking the flow of the phrase.
   • Be able to move with ease and control throughout the range.

   • Use vibrato appropriately to colour the sound.
   Poor candidates might:
   • Produce uneven breathy tone.
   • Be unable to sustain to the end of a phrase.
   • Strain for high or low notes.
   • Have weak or unprojected tone.
   • Have poor diction.
   • Be unable to sing a legato line without aspirating each note.
   • Be unable to sing wide leaps without stopping the voice.

Child Protection Cover At Awards Examinations

The Salisbury Diocesan Choral Festival Group takes child protection extremely seriously. Consequently, all examiners at awards sessions are CRB checked and have been given clearance to work with young people by the diocese.

If the examinations are to take place in a venue belonging to another organisation (i.e. church, school or private property) a person appointed by the candidates church must supervise candidates before and after their examination.

In these circumstances it is essential that this person complies with all Child Protection policies and procedures laid down by the church or school where they supervise children.

The following must be completed by the Child Protection Officer of the supervisor’s church or school:

Name of supervisor ..........................................................

I confirm that the person named above is cleared to work with young people under the age of 18, according to this organisation’s Child Protection policies and procedures.
