

Welcome to Praxis

The church exists to worship God.

Worship is the only activity of the Church which will last into eternity.

Worship enriches and transforms our lives. In Christ we are drawn closer to God in the here and now. This shapes our beliefs, our actions and our way of life. God transforms us as individuals, congregations and communities.

Worship provides a vital context for mission, teaching and pastoral care. Good worship and liturgy inspires and attracts, informs and delights. The worship of God can give hope and comfort in times of joy and of sorrow.

Despite this significance, we are often under-resourced for worship. Praxis seeks to address this. We want to encourage and equip people, lay and ordained, to create, lead and participate in acts of worship which enable transformation to happen in individuals and communities.

What does Praxis do to offer help?

Praxis offers the following:

- ✝ training days and events around the country (with reduced fees for members and no charge for ordinands or Readers-in-training)
- ✝ key speakers and ideas for diocesan CME/CMD programmes, and resources for training colleges/courses/schemes
- ✝ our quarterly newsletter Praxis News of Worship, included in the membership fee
- ✝ and, of course, this website.

The Complexities of Inclusion

integrating physical, social and emotional accessibility in worship

A day exploring how we could provide a welcoming environment and appropriate liturgy, so that physical, social and emotional inclusion is a consistent feature of our worship. We will address these concerns through key speakers and a panel session.

Speakers and Panel members: Frances Young, theologian and Methodist minister; Fiona MacMillan, chair of the Disability Advisory Group at St Martin in the Fields and a trustee of Inclusive Church; Ann Memmott, international consultant, trainer and speaker on autism, and author of the main guidelines on autism for the Church of England; The Rev'd Zoe Heming, Enabling Church Adviser for Lichfield Diocese, member of General Synod, and one of its representatives on the Committee for Ministry of and among Deaf & Disabled People; Anna de Lange, Reader and author including the Grove booklet, Worship and Disability: a kingdom for all.
