

Bishop Thomas Ken – Man of principle in an age of change

West Wiltshire
Theology Group
Thursday 17th October 2019

Rev Colin Alsbury,
Vicar, Parish Church of
St John the Evangelist, Frome,
and
Chair of the Thomas Ken Society

7 for 7.30 p.m.
St Boniface Hall,
Warminster School,
Warminster. BA12 8PJ

All welcome. No charge
Refreshments
Donations for costs & expenses invited

Thomas Ken (died 1711) was Bishop of Bath and Wells and a leading “Non-Juror”, he refused the oath of allegiance to William and Mary in 1689 and was deprived of his see. Subsequently, living at Longleat, his writing – sermons, poems, hymns – confirmed him as a major spiritual figure of the 17th and 18th century Church. He is buried at Frome.

Bishop Thomas Ken – Man of principle in an age of change

West Wiltshire
Theology Group
Thursday 17th October 2019

Rev Colin Alsbury,
Vicar, Parish Church of
St John the Evangelist, Frome,
and
Chair of the Thomas Ken Society

7 for 7.30 p.m.
St Boniface Hall,
Warminster School,
Warminster. BA12 8PJ

All welcome. No charge
Refreshments
Donations for costs & expenses invited

Thomas Ken (died 1711) was Bishop of Bath and Wells and a leading “Non-Juror”, he refused the oath of allegiance to William and Mary in 1689 and was deprived of his see. Subsequently, living at Longleat, his writing – sermons, poems, hymns – confirmed him as a major spiritual figure of the 17th and 18th century Church. He is buried at Frome.