

Dear Friends,

I am pleased to set out below the 2019-20 programme for the 59th season of the Bournemouth William Temple Association. I would be most grateful if you would please advertise it in your usual way and also, if possible, by word of mouth. If you have access to a noticeboard, please use that as well. As I did last season, I will send you a monthly reminder of the next talk. Please also mention our website - www.williamtemple.org.uk. Many thanks - John Newbold Tel: 01202-761749 e-mail: jjnewbold@btinternet.com

THE BOURNEMOUTH WILLIAM TEMPLE ASSOCIATION – Chairman Mr John Newbold

The Association welcomes Christian men and women of all denominations who want to learn more about our faith and its application to contemporary issues. We meet at the Marsham Court Hotel, Russell-Cotes Road, normally on the first Monday of each month from October until May. Dinner (optional) for members and their guests is served at 7.00pm, and this is followed at 8.10pm by a talk and question time.

The programme for the coming season is as follows:-

7th October 2019

The Reverend Simon Evans - Vicar of St. Thomas' Church, Ensbury Park, Bournemouth, Chaplain to Dorset Police, Anglican Ecumenical Officer for Dorset

"There is something special about this place" – finding God in Thin Places.

4th November 2019

Dr. Margaret Barker – Temple Studies Group

The Jerusalem Temple as the Plan of Creation

2nd December 2019
