

St Edward's Way Pilgrimage

27th - 29th March 2020

St Edward, boy King, was originally buried at Wareham. Later however his body was moved to Shaftesbury Abbey where it became an object of pilgrimage. This year Bishop Karen will be leading a pilgrimage to inaugurate the St Edward's Way - a permanent 30 mile route waymarked by The Ramblers across Dorset.

Everyone is invited to join in

Come and join us, walking as much or as little as you can manage. Please bring a packed lunch and proper walking gear.
